Physiognomonie Character Sketches
Mr. Gathman • English 7

“Physiognomonie. The secrets of the individual’s character as found in his face,”
(Bradbury 186).

Directions: Design faces for 3 of the characters in Something Wicked This Way Comes. On each of the lines below each face explain why you drew the characters’ face as you did (with examples/explanations/quotes from the book).

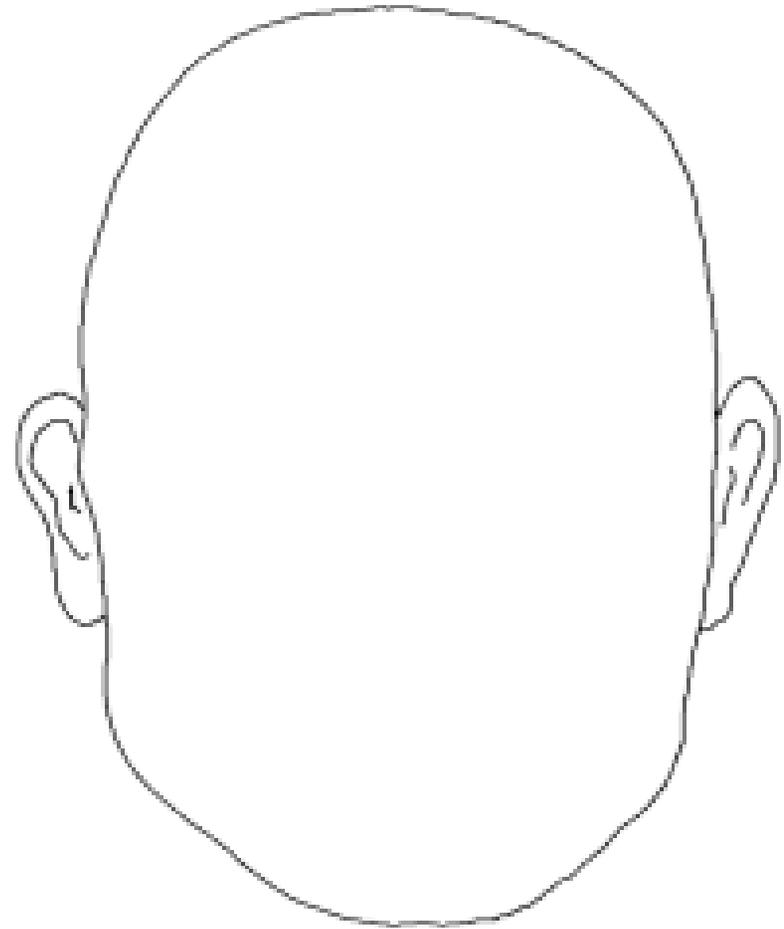

You can either draw the facial features and expressions or you can choose to draw symbols in place of the features. Remember to explain each feature, expression, or symbol. Use extra paper, if needed.

Each section of the face means a different thing in accordance to the characters personality:

- Forehead: Character’s way of thinking
- Eyebrows: Character’s passion, sense of pride, and temperament
- Eyes: Shows insight on how open character is to life experiences
- Nose: Work and how character deals with money
- Mouth: How expressive character is
- Chin: Character’s level of assertiveness
- Ears: How character interacts with others
